

THABA INVESTMENTS LIMITED

Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals

Thaba Investments Limited recognizing its responsibility to respect human rights and not to contribute to conflict; and is fully committed to adopt, disseminate and incorporate in the contract or agreements with its customers the metal supply chain policy for responsible sourcing of minerals from conflict affected and high risk areas.

Thaba Investments Limited, strongly recommend its customers to operate in accordance with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas and the LBMA Responsible Gold Guidance.

Thaba Investments Limited fully commits to neither tolerate, nor by any means profit from, contribute to, assist with or facilitate the commission by any party and will take actions on:

I. Serious abuses associated with the extraction, transport or trade of minerals

- While sourcing from, or operating in, conflict-affected areas
- Any forms of torture, cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment;
- Any forms of forced or compulsory labour, which means work or service which is exacted from any person under the menace of penalty and for which said person has not offered himself voluntarily;
- The worst forms of child labour
- Other gross human rights violations and abuses such as widespread sexual violence;
- War crimes or other serious violations of international humanitarian law, crimes against humanity or genocide.

II. Risk management of serious abuses

- Will immediately suspend or discontinue engagement with upstream suppliers where we identify a reasonable risk that they are sourcing from, or linked to, any party committing serious abuses.

III. Regarding direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups

- Will not tolerate any direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups through the extraction, transport, trade, handling or export of minerals. "Direct or indirect support" to non-state armed groups through the extraction, transport, trade, handling or export of minerals includes, but is not limited to, procuring minerals from, making payments to or otherwise providing logistical assistance or equipment to, non-state armed groups or their affiliates who:

Illegally control mine sites or otherwise control transportation routes, points where minerals are traded and upstream actors in the supply chain; and/or

Illegally tax or extort money or minerals at points of access to mine sites, along transportation routes or at points where minerals are traded; and/or

Illegally tax or extort intermediaries, export companies or international traders.

IV. Risk management of direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups

- We will immediately suspend or discontinue engagement with upstream suppliers where we identify a reasonable risk that they are sourcing from, or linked to, any party providing direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups.

V. Public or private security forces

- We agree to eliminate, in accordance with paragraph 10, direct or indirect support to public or private security forces who illegally control mine sites, transportation routes and upstream actors in the supply chain; illegally tax or extort money or minerals at point of access to mine sites, along transportation routes or at points where minerals are traded, or illegally tax or extort intermediaries, export companies or international traders.

- We recognize that the role of public or private security forces at the mine sites and/or surrounding areas and/or along transportation routes should be solely to maintain the rule of law, including safeguarding human rights, providing security forces that are known to have been responsible for gross human rights abuses will not be hired.
- Where we or any company in our supply chain contract public or private security forces, we commit to or we will require that such security forces will be engaged in accordance with the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights. In particular, we will support or take steps, to adopt screening policies to ensure that individuals or units of security forces that are known to have been responsible for gross human rights abuses will not be hired.
- We will support efforts, or take steps, to engage with central or local authorities, international organizations and civil society organizations to contribute to workable solutions on how transparency, proportionality and accountability in payments made to public security forces for the provision of security could be improved.
- We will support efforts, or take steps, to engage with local authorities, international organizations and civil society organizations to avoid or minimize the exposure of vulnerable groups, in particular, artisanal miners where minerals in the supply chain are extracted through artisanal or small-scale mining, to adverse impacts associated with the presence of security forces, public or private, on mine sites.

VI. Risk management of public or private security forces

- In accordance with the specific position of the company in the supply chain, we will immediately devise, adopt and implement a risk management plan with upstream suppliers and other stakeholders to prevent or mitigate the risk of direct or indirect support to public or private security forces, as identified in paragraph 5, where we identify that such a reasonable risk exists. In such cases, we will suspend or discontinue engagement with upstream suppliers after failed attempts at mitigation within six months from the adoption of the risk management plan. (8) Where we identify a reasonable risk of activities inconsistent with paragraph 8 and 9, we will respond in the same vein.

VII. Bribery and fraudulent misrepresentation of the origin of minerals

- We will not offer, promise, give or demand any bribes, and will resist the solicitation of bribes to conceal or disguise the origin of minerals, to misrepresent taxes, fees and royalties paid to governments for the purposes of mineral extraction, trade, handling, transport and export.

VIII. Money laundering

- We will support efforts, or take steps, to contribute to the effective elimination of money laundering where we identify a reasonable risk of money laundering resulting from, or connected to, the extraction, trade, handling, transport or export of minerals derived from the illegal taxation or extortion of minerals at points of access to mine sites, along transportation routes or at points where minerals are traded by upstream suppliers.

IX. Payment of taxes, fees and royalties due to governments

- We will ensure that all taxes, fees and royalties related to mineral extraction, trade and export from conflict-affected and high-risk areas are paid to governments and, in accordance with the company's position in the supply chain, we commit to disclosure such payments in accordance with the principles set forth under the Extractive Industry Transparency Initiative (EITI).

X. Risk Management of bribery and fraudulent misrepresentation of the origin of minerals, money laundering and payment of taxes, fees and royalties to governments

- In accordance with the specific position of the company in the supply chain, we commit to engage with suppliers, central or local governmental authorities, international organizations, civil society and affected third parties, as appropriate, to improve and track performance with a view to preventing or mitigating risks of adverse impacts through measureable steps taken in reasonable timescales. We will suspend or discontinue engagement with upstream suppliers after failed attempts at mitigation.
